Providing support to our communities.

Banner Witcoff attorneys recognize the responsibility to serve our local communities in meaningful ways by providing pro bono legal services to persons of limited means, to public interest or charitable organizations, or to other groups or activities whose purpose is improving the law or the legal profession. We also volunteer to support local charitable organizations that provide services to our communities.

Active and Recent Pro Bono Matters

Representing Individuals Seeking Asylum

We represent clients from around the world seeking asylum from ethnic violence, gender-based violence, gang violence, and political persecution.

Representing Prisoners in Section 1983 Claims for Civil Rights Violations

We represent clients who have sued for violations of their constitutional rights, including their rights under the First and Eighth Amendments.

Wills on Wheels

We assist indigent elderly clients in preparing wills, powers of attorney, and advanced medical directives.
