In Memoriam: Virgil Bryan Medlock Jr.

Former Banner Witcoff attorney Virgil Bryan Medlock Jr. passed away on Dec. 11. He was 83.

A native of Oklahoma, Bryan earned his undergraduate and law degrees from Oklahoma University. He joined Banner Witcoff in March 2010 after honing his intellectual property practice at other respected law firms.

Bryan spent five decades practicing IP law and litigating patent cases before retiring from Banner Witcoff in December 2017. Credited for being a pioneer in patent jury trials, Bryan made many contributions to Banner Witcoff, his clients, and the legal profession as a whole.

Banner Witcoff extends our deepest condolences to Bryan's family, friends and loved ones. Click here to view the full obituary and tribute wall.
