

IP Corporate Roundtable to Present Patent Year in Review

November 12, 2020

Banner Witcoff's Corporate IP Roundtable programs will host a Nov. 12 webinar to review major patent law developments from the past year.

Banner Witcoff attorney Scott M. Kelly will present the webinar, which will address Federal Circuit and Supreme Court cases covering issues that range from patentable subject matter and collateral estoppel to prior art and appeals, among many others.

The webinar will begin at 12 p.m. CT. One MCLE credit is pending. Attendees must register in advance. Click here to register.

Banner Witcoff launched the North Shore Corporate IP Roundtable program in 2017 to provide educational and networking opportunities for in-house corporate counsel in the Chicago metropolitan area. Due to its success, the firm expanded the initiative to a second location in Chicago's west suburbs and is now rolling out the program in the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia (DMV) area. All programs are currently being held remotely.
